

ESSAYPRO.COM

[Your Name]

[Instructor's Name]

[Course Title]

[Date]

Argumentative Essay Outline

I. Introduction

- Hook: Start with an attention-grabbing statement, question, or statistic related to your topic.
- Background Information: Provide context on the issue or topic you'll be discussing.
- Thesis Statement: Present your main argument or position on the topic and briefly outline the main points you'll use to support it.

II. Main Arguments

- Point 1: Present your first argument or reason supporting your thesis.
 - Supporting Evidence: Provide facts, examples, or expert opinions that support your argument.
 - Explanation: Explain the significance of the evidence and how it supports your thesis.
- Point 2: Introduce your second argument or reason.

- Supporting Evidence: Offer additional evidence or examples to strengthen your argument.
- Explanation: Analyze the relevance of the evidence and its impact on your overall argument.
- Point 3: Present your third argument or reason (if applicable).
 - Supporting Evidence: Provide further evidence or examples to reinforce your position.
 - Explanation: Discuss the significance of this evidence and how it contributes to your overall argument.

III. Counterargument and Rebuttal

- Counterargument: Address potential objections or opposing viewpoints to your thesis.
 - Acknowledge opposing arguments: Present the opposing viewpoint fairly and accurately.
 - Rebuttal: Refute the counterargument by providing evidence or reasoning that undermines it.

IV. Conclusion

- Restate Thesis: Summarize your main argument and restate your thesis statement.
- Recap Main Points: Briefly review the key points you've made in support of your thesis.

ESSAYPRO.COM

- Call to Action or Closing Thought: End with a strong closing statement that reinforces the importance of your argument or suggests a course of action for the reader.

essaypro.com